Holy Trinity Cemetery was Established in 1871

One side of the gate has the following marker containing the pioneer wagon with oxen and the following:

CZECH PIONEER MEMORIAL

Donated by Ed Kopac in memory of his parents
Matej and Josefa Kopac

With empty hands you came to wilds uncharted.
We gaze upon them now, O pioneers, brave-hearted.
From muddy river west to rocky mountains base
Prosperity's sweet streams these fruitful prairies grace.

Your triumph over hardships, weary and heart-breaking,
Bring joyful pride to us at your great undertaking.
Your handiworks so fair, which far and wide we view,
Bring swells of love to heart - our gratitude to you.

(Adapted from a poem by Bartos Bittner.)

The north side of the gate has a special plaque as follows:

Pioneer Immigrants from the Old World who are buried in this cemetery.

There are five bronze plaques mounted with the following names and dates.
